

BUCKS COUNTY Courier Times

Sports

Tamia Wessels powers Abington in opener

By BCT sports staff

Posted Dec 8, 2018 at 12:16 AM

Updated Dec 8, 2018 at 12:16 AM

Bucks County high school girls basketball roundup: Dec. 7

Tamia Wessels scored 19 points, leading the way for the Abington Senior High School girls basketball team's resounding 57-19 win against Central High School in the opening round of the 2018 Galloping Ghosts Classic on Friday. Krysten Brown contributed 15 points as the Ghosts glided to the tourney win on home turf.

Pennridge 71, Faith Christian 23: Julia Kreider led the offensive charge with 18 points as the Rams dazzled the home crowd in the opening round of the Pennridge Tip-Off Tournament. Kreider was one of three in double digits, as Emilee Cramer scored 11 points and Ashley Gordon netted 10.

William Tennent 54, Conwell Egan 24: Hannah Reimel scored 14 points as the Panthers doubled up on Conwell Egan in the William Tennent Tip-Off Tournament. Jenna Rodebaugh added 14 points and Haley Crossley posted 12 points and three rebounds. Chelsea Metzger had six steals as the Panthers put the home-field advantage to work. Kylie Maroney led the Eagles with 15 points.

Hatboro-Horsham 46, Little Flower 28: Emily Thomas paced a balanced offense with nine points in the Hatters' Basketball Tip-Off Classic. Alice Hall and Cam Ryan scored eight points apiece and Kylie Halko netted seven points in the win.

Souderton 52, Saint Hubert 13: Megan Bealer led the Indians with 16 points in their first round win in the 5th Annual Jim Church Classic. Megan Walbrandt and Curran O'Donnell had nine points apiece in the victory.

George School 44, Princeton Day 12: Alexis Semidey-Martinez and Aqua Withers Carello netted 10 points apiece as the Cougars clawed the Princeton Panthers for a decisive win. Lauren Hanna scored seven points and Kaliyah Myricks added five in the victory.