

The Intelligencer

Sports

Krysten Brown double-double gives Abington home tournament win

By Sports staff

Posted Dec 8, 2018 at 9:49 PM

Bucks County girls basketball roundup: Dec. 8

Krysten Brown scored 21 points and posted 12 rebounds as the Abington High School's girls basketball team put on a show for the home crowd, defeating West Catholic 70-62 to claim the Galloping Ghosts Classic championship on Saturday. Camryn Lexow also posted a double-double, putting up 20 points and 10 rebounds, while Tamia Wessels tallied 18 points in the win.

Pennridge 73, Gwynedd-Mercy 48: Emilee Cramer and Sam Mureda scored 15 points apiece as the Rams' offensive explosion secured the Pennridge Memorial Classic Tip-Off championship win. Cramer landed five three-pointers as the Rams overpowered the Monarchs after finishing the first quarter in a 21-21 deadlock. Kaylie Griffin had 15 points for the Monarchs.

St. Basil 44, Souderton 26: Megan Walbrandt, Mikaela Reese and Megan O'Donnell all had six points, but the Indians fell in the Jim Church Classic championship game.

Neshaminy 51, Central Bucks South 39: Neshaminy was victorious in the Suburban One League Tip-Off Tournament title game.

Council Rock South 60, Cheltenham 49: The Hawks soared to victory in the third-place game of the Lady Wildcat Tip-Off Tournament.

George School 41, Plumstead Christian 28: Alexis Semidey-Martinez scored 12 points to guide the Cougars to victory. Alexandra Long connected on a pair of three-pointers, on her way to eight points on the day. Chloe Kent and Olivia Mott scored 10 points apiece for Plumstead.