Bucks County high school baseball roundup: May 11

Adam Sheehan hit a two-run single in the seventh inning of a tie game to give George School baseball the lead, and eventual 4-2 win, against Abington Friends School in the Quaker Cup championship game on Saturday.

The Cougars' pitchers sealed the win with a scoreless bottom of the seventh inning, as Bennett Lichstein got the final out, in relief of sophomore starter Justus Agosto, who went 6 2/3 innings, allowing four hits and striking out eight. Agosto also keyed the Cougars' win by hitting a two-run home run in the sixth of a scoreless game.

Archbishop Wood 16, Olney 7: Antonio Rossilo's two-run home run in the bottom of the first got Archbishop Wood going in its lopsided nonleague win over Olney. Sam Reynolds went 3-for-4 with a double, three runs scored and two RBIs.

Plumstead Christian 18, Church Farm 8: Josh Pritchard, Ben Read, Kyle Noseworthy, and Matt Shiel each had two RBIs, as Plumstead Christian took advantage of 16 bases on balls in its mercy-rule BAL victory.
