Odd arrangements (ARR) will meet in the first four weeks of school, followed by even arrangements in the next four weeks, and so on. This schedule shows what the first four weeks will look like. These classes are live online sessions for all students.

All students will attend a hybrid version of meeting for worship (MFW) once a week and all students will attend the hybrid meetings of assembly, gathering, and collection.

The 2:15-3:30 p.m. block on Monday through Thursday is a structured time when those physically on campus will spend time with teachers and classmates in classrooms, labs, and studios. Day and boarding students will be in different spaces during this time.
